This is a summary of our insurance policy. You can find full information provided prior to entry into an insurance contract and contractual information on the insurance product in the General Terms and Conditions of Trip Cancellation – Safe Reservations Insurance of 30 August 2018 and in other documents.

What type of insurance is this?

Voluntary personal insurance (Section II Group 1, 2, 8, 9) – Trip Cancellation or Interruption Insurance.

What is insured?

Depending on the package and the selected sum insured specified in the insurance document, the insurance covers the reimbursement of 80% or 100% of costs you (the Insured) incur in relation to:

- ✓ Trip, conference or package trip cancellation
- ✓ Airplane, bus, ferry or train ticket cancellation,
- ✓ Hotel booking cancellation,
- ✓ Trip interruption

due to, including but not limited to: personal accident, sudden illness or death of you or your travelling companion or your close persons, termination of employment by notice or serious loss to your property or the property of your travelling companion.

What is not insured?

What is not insured?

- ✗ Consequences of chronic diseases when you do not have a relevant extension of cover,
- ✗ reasons for cancellation not listed in the General Terms and Conditions of Insurance.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

You are not covered for events related to circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

- ! Your deliberate action,
- ! Acting under the influence of alcohol, drugs or other intoxicants,
- ! Mental disorders,
- ! Medical contraindications against the trip,
- ! Cancellation of the trip by the tour operator and his bankruptcy and non-performance of obligations,
- ! Denial or cancellation of your leave or change of its timing by your employer.

Where am I covered?

You will be covered worldwide.

What are the obligations of the policyholder?

As a policyholder, you must:

- ✓ make premium payments,
- ✓ deliver the General Terms of Insurance to the insured before he/she is covered and inform him/her about his/her obligations under the insurance contract.

When and how do I pay?

You can pay your premium as a one-off payment in PLN on the day of entering into the insurance contract. Depending on the manner of entering into the contract, you can either pay in cash or make a cashless payment.

When does the cover start and end?

- For travel cancellation insurance, the cover starts on the next day after you enter into the insurance contract and ends:
 - ✓ When the trip or the conference starts,
 - ✓ When the earliest service in a package is started (package trip),
 - ✓ Upon check-in (airplane or ferry ticket) or coach or train boarding,
 - ✓ Upon check-in at the hotel (hotel booking cancellation).
- For trip interruption insurance, the cover starts on the trip start date and ends on the day preceding your final day of the trip.

How do I cancel the contract?

The Policyholder may withdraw from an insurance contract entered into for more than 6 months within 30 days (for an entrepreneur – within 7 days) from entering into such contract. If SIGNAL IDUNA failed to inform the Policyholder of his/her right to withdraw from the contract on entering into such contract at the latest, the said 30 day term commences on the day when the Policyholder learned about the said right.

CONCLUSION OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

1. The insurance contract is concluded at the request of the Policy holder.
2. Conclusion of the insurance contract requires issuing an insurance document and payment of the premium.
3. The insurance contract can be concluded only within the time:
 - a) when there are at least 30 days left until the start of travel – within 7 days (as from the next day) from the date on which the travel contract is concluded (including the first travel service) or on which the first payment for travel is made (depending on which occurred first),
 - b) when there are fewer than 30 days left until the start of travel – on the day the travel contract is concluded (including the first travel service) or on which the first payment for travel is made (depending on which occurred first).
4. In case of insuring cancellation of accommodation booking, the insurance contract may be concluded if the price of the accommodation amounts to at least PLN 100.00.
5. The insurance contract may be concluded on behalf of the Insured by a third party (Policy holder).

WHEN YOU CAN BUY A POLICY

- The Policy holder is obliged to deliver the GT&C to the Insured before the Insured is covered by insurance, and to inform the Insured about his/her obligations ensuing from the insurance contract. The GT&C are delivered to the Insured in writing or on another durable medium if the Insured consents to it.

THE POLICY HOLDER MUST PROVIDE EVERY INSURED WITH THE GT&C BEFORE THE INSURANCE CONTRACT IS CONCLUDED

- The rights ensuing from the insurance contract are enjoyed by the person on behalf of which the insurance was taken out. The Insured is, in addition to the Policy holder, liable for fulfilling the obligations ensuing from the insurance contract.
- Unless agreed otherwise, the insurance contract must contain at least: first and last name, date of birth or full name, Tax Identification Number and address of the company, enterprise or institution.
- The Insured gives his/her consent for entities providing medical services to give SIGNAL IDUNA the necessary medical records, and for the National Health Fund to give the names and addresses of the service providers (and releases the domestic and foreign physicians from the patient-doctor privilege) for the purpose of determining the right to compensation under the insurance contract and the value of that compensation. The consent is valid on a condition of occurrence of the insured event.

SUM INSURED

- The sum insured is presented in the insurance document.
- In a situation where the travel price has been paid in a foreign currency, the sum insured is converted to PLN at the most recent average exchange rate published by the National Bank of Poland before concluding the insurance contract.

INSURANCE PREMIUM

- The insurance premium is set depending on the insurance option, insurance version, sum insured, extension of insurance cover to include additional risks, premium rates set in the table of rates, in effect on the day the insurance contract is concluded, the number of persons insured.
- The premium is a one-off payment in Polish zlotys made on the day the insurance contract is concluded, unless the parties agree otherwise.

PERIOD OF INSURANCE /INSURANCE COVER /PERIOD OF LIABILITY

- The insurance contract can be concluded for a maximum period of 2 years.
- The insurance period is specified in the insurance document.

- The insurance protection and liability of SIGNAL IDUNA start on the first day of the insurance period, not earlier though than:
 - on the next day after the insurance contract is concluded – in case of travel resignation insurance,
 - at the time the trip starts, not earlier though than on the next day after the insurance contract is concluded – in case of trip interruption insurance.

WHEN INSURANCE COVER STARTS

- The insurance cover and liability of SIGNAL IDUNA end with the lapse of the insurance period, not later though than:
 - at the time the trip or the conference starts – in case of trip resignation insurance or participation in conference insurance,
 - at the time the travel service whose date is the earliest of all services in the package starts – in case of a package trip,
 - as from the end of the day preceding the day of the trip end – in case of trip interruption insurance,
 - as from the time a check-in is performed (plane or ferry ticket) or as from the moment the Insured boards a bus, train – in case of ticket cancellation insurance,
 - as from the time the Insured checks in at a hotel facility – in case of accommodation booking cancellation insurance.

WHEN INSURANCE COVER ENDS

- The insurance cover and liability of SIGNAL IDUNA expire on the day the Policy holder withdraws from the insurance contract.
- The period of insurance cover may be extended only before the end of the insurance period specified in the previous insurance document, and requires that a new insurance document be issued.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

1. The Policy holder has the right to withdraw from the insurance contract concluded for a period exceeding 6 months within 30 days (in case of an entrepreneur – within 7 days) of the date on which the insurance contract is concluded. If, at the latest, by the time the insurance contract was concluded, SIGNAL IDUNA had not inform the Policy holder about the right to withdraw from the insurance contract, the 30-day period runs from the day on which the Policy holder learned about this right.
2. Withdrawal from the insurance contract does not release the Policy holder from the obligation to pay the premium for the period during which SIGNAL IDUNA provided insurance cover.
3. Withdrawal from the insurance contract within the statutory deadline does not result in the deduction of handling fees.
4. Withdrawal from the insurance contract should be performed in writing.
5. The value of the refundable premium shall be determined in the amount calculated proportionally to the duration of the unused insurance period, however, every started day of insurance is treated as a fully used day.

SUBJECT MATTER OF INSURANCE RESIGNATION FROM TRAVEL

1. The subject of insurance are the costs incurred by the Insured in connection with resignation from travel.
2. The costs of resignation from travel mean the fees incurred by the Insured in connection with the resignation from travel before it starts, as stipulated in the written contract concluded by the Insured with the organizer of travel and presented in the declaration of deductions made by those entities in the claim report form.
3. In case of insuring the costs of accommodation bookings cancellation that concern entire vacation dwellings, apartments, if the booking price has been set for a specified number of people, the insurance covers only the costs of cancelling the entire booking of the hotel facility.
4. In case of insuring the resignation from the trip, the subject matter of insurance are also:

- a) costs which the Insured incurred in connection with the change of the booking to a single room in a situation where the Travelling companion resigned from it for reasons indicated in § 10; the claim in this regard can be filed only after the Insured returns from the trip, with a reservation that the maximum refund of the costs can amount to PLN 1,000.00,
- b) costs of air transport in economy class incurred by the Insured in connection with the need to reach the destination of the trip on his/her own due to a delay, by more than 3 hours, of the public means of transport which the Insured used to reach the trip starting point indicated in the contract and thus was unable to use the means of transport indicated in that contract, with a reservation that the maximum refund of the cannot exceed PLN 1,000.00.

 - n) consequences of all types of vaccinations, excluding § 10.1 item o,
 - o) cancellation of travel by the organizer of travel as well as his/her bankruptcy and failure to fulfil the commitments,
 - p) cancellation or change of the time of the leave by the Insured or Travelling companion or failure to grant, cancellation or change of the time of the leave by the employer, excluding § 10.1 item f.
2. SIGNAL IDUNA shall not refund extra costs incurred by the Insured in connection with resignation from travel services not included in the price of travel (e.g. visas, phone calls, costs of vaccinations, etc.), subject to the provisions of § 8.4 and § 9.3.
3. SIGNAL IDUNA is not liable if the organizer of travel is not informed in writing about resignation from travel or trip interruption.

PROCEDURE IN CASE OF OCCURRENCE OF THE INSURED EVENT

WHAT TO DO TO RECEIVE COMPENSATION

1. In case of occurrence of the insured event, the Insured is obliged to:
 - 1) make every effort to minimize the costs associated with the resignation from travel/trip interruption. For that purpose, immediately (but not later than within two days) of the date of occurrence of the event specified in § 10, the Insured is obliged to inform the organizer of travel about this fact in writing and to submit the required documents reporting the resignation from travel/trip interruption,
 - 2) submit the claim to SIGNAL IDUNA within 7 days of the date of occurrence of the event or to inform the organizer of travel. The claim is submitted by sending SIGNAL IDUNA documents confirming the justness and value of the claim being submitted, including:
 - a) an appropriate claim report form,
 - b) insurance document,

- c) contract of participation in a trip or in a conference, contract of booking various travel services comprising a package trip, ticket or invoice for the purchase of a ticket, contract of accommodation booking,
 - d) original bills and proof of payment of fees,
 - e) declaration of resignation certified by the organizer of travel,
 - f) certificate from the organizer of travel about the value of deductions ensuing from resignation from travel,
 - g) medical records of the Insured, Travelling companion or their immediate family documenting treatments, together with the results of tests, diagnosis with the date thereof, confirming the need to resign from travel or interrupt the trip (and, at the request of SIGNAL IDUNA, also documentation concerning the medical history of the Insured, Travelling companion or their immediate family for a maximum period of 5 years preceding the date on which the insurance contract was concluded),
 - h) other documents required to determine the justness and value of the claim; the list of the necessary documents can be found on SIGNAL IDUNA's website and on the claim report form;
- 3) release other insurance companies, institutions, attending physicians and medical facilities from the obligation to observe secrecy with respect to SIGNAL IDUNA in situations when this is necessary to determine the liability of SIGNAL IDUNA,
 - 4) if this proves necessary, to let himself be examined by a physician designated by SIGNAL IDUNA. SIGNAL IDUNA shall bear the costs associated with undergoing the aforementioned examination, including the costs associated with the loss of remuneration by the Insured that day.
2. If, due to a wilful misconduct or gross negligence, the Insured failed to fulfil any of the obligations referred to in clause 1, SIGNAL IDUNA may reduce the compensation to such degree in which the breach contributed to the increase in the loss or made it impossible to determine the circumstances and consequences of the insured event.
 3. After submitting the claim, within 7 days of receipt thereof, SIGNAL IDUNA informs the Insured about this and commences a procedure to determine the actual state of the event, the justness and value of the claims, and informs the person lodging the claim, in writing or in another manner to which this person consented, which documents are required to determine the liability of SIGNAL IDUNA or the value of compensation, if this is necessary to continue the procedure.
 4. The Insured is obliged to apply all possible measures to diminish the loss and not to allow it to increase. He/she is also obliged to allow SIGNAL IDUNA to perform activities necessary to determine the circumstances of occurrence of the loss, the justness and value of the claim.
 5. The Insured is obliged to notify SIGNAL IDUNA that he/she possesses an insurance document other than that issued by SIGNAL IDUNA, with the same scope of risk.

DETERMINATION AND PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION

1. The justness and value of the claim is determined on the basis of the evidence presented by the Insured or the Beneficiary. SIGNAL IDUNA has the right to verify them at the organizer of travel or other entities and to obtain opinions from experts.
2. The compensation is paid in the Polish currency (PLN).

DATE OF PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION

1. SIGNAL IDUNA shall pay the compensation within 30 days of the day on which the claim is lodged.
2. Should it not be possible to clarify the circumstances necessary to determine the justness and value of the claim within that time, the compensation is paid within 14 days of the day on which, taking due care, it was possible to clarify those circumstances. However, the indisputable portion of the compensation, which means the documented and not doubtful portion of the compensation, will be paid by SIGNAL IDUNA within the time specified in clause 1.
3. SIGNAL IDUNA shall inform the Insured/Beneficiary in writing about the value of the compensation awarded.
4. If the compensation is not payable or is payable in an amount different from that specified in the claim, SIGNAL IDUNA shall inform the Insured/Beneficiary about this fact in writing, referring to the circumstances and legal grounds justifying the refusal or partial refusal to pay compensation.

COMPLAINTS

4. SIGNAL IDUNA shall examine the complaint and answer it immediately, not later than within 30 days of receipt thereof, unless particularly complicated circumstances occur, making it impossible to examine the complaint and to give an answer within that time. In this case, SIGNAL IDUNA will inform the Customer about the reasons for the delay and the circumstances which must be clarified in order to examine the case, and will indicate the anticipated date by which the complaint will be examined and answer given, which may not exceed 60 days from the day the complaint is received. If the above deadlines for examining the complaint and giving the answer are not met, the complaint is considered as examined in accordance with the Customer's will.
5. The answer to the complaint is given in writing and, at the Customer's request, it can also be sent by e-mail.
6. The Customer may also file complaints and grievances concerning SIGNAL IDUNA's business activities to the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, the Financial Ombudsman, the municipal or regional Consumers Ombudsman and other bodies protecting customers of financial market entities.
7. The entity authorized to conduct proceedings related to out-of-court resolution of disputes is the Financial Ombudsman (<https://rf.gov.pl/>).
8. Actions related to claims under the insurance contract may be brought in either in accordance with the common laws or before a court having jurisdiction over the place of residence or registered office of the Customer.
9. SIGNAL IDUNA is subject to supervision by the Polish Financial Supervision Authority.

RECOURSE CLAIMS

1. On the day the compensation is paid, the Insured's claim against the third party liable for the loss up to the value of the compensation paid is transferred, by virtue of the law, to SIGNAL IDUNA.
2. If SIGNAL IDUNA covered only part of the loss, the Insured has a priority in satisfying the remaining part of the claims before the claims of SIGNAL IDUNA.
3. If, without SIGNAL IDUNA's consent, the Insured waived the claim against the third party liable for the loss or limited it, SIGNAL IDUNA may refuse to pay the compensation or reduce it accordingly to such degree in which SIGNAL IDUNA is unable to pursue recourse claims against the third party.
4. If, without SIGNAL IDUNA's consent, the Insured waived the claim against the third party liable for the loss or limited it, SIGNAL IDUNA may refuse to pay the compensation or reduce it accordingly to such degree in which SIGNAL IDUNA is unable to pursue recourse claims against the third party.
5. If the waiver or limitation of the claim is disclosed after the compensation had been paid, SIGNAL IDUNA may demand that the Insured return the compensation in such part in which SIGNAL IDUNA is unable to pursue recourse claims against the third party.

FINAL PROVISIONS

1. SIGNAL IDUNA publishes the GT&C on its website and makes them available at its registered office free of charge in a form that makes them possible to be accessed, copied and saved.
2. All notifications and declarations of SIGNAL IDUNA, the Insured, the Policy holder and the Beneficiary should be filed in writing under the pain of nullity, against confirmation of receipt, or sent by registered mail, unless the provisions of the GT&C or the insurance contract permit a different form.
3. The Insured, the Policy holder or the Beneficiary as the person filing the claim is obliged to inform SIGNAL IDUNA about a change of address.
4. Any matters not regulated herein are governed by the provisions of the Civil Code and other Polish laws.
5. These GT&C were approved by the resolution No. 48/Z/2018 of SIGNAL IDUNA Polska TU S.A. Management Board of August 30, 2018 and apply to insurance contracts concluded on the basis of these GT&C starting from November 2, 2018.

If using the translation of these GT&C, the parties agree that, in case of doubt, the Polish language version shall prevail.

 - f) certificate from the organizer of travel about the value of deductions ensuing from resignation from travel,
 - g) medical records of the Insured, Travelling companion or their immediate family documenting treatments, together with the results of tests, diagnosis with the date thereof, confirming the need to resign from travel or interrupt the trip (and, at the request of SIGNAL IDUNA, also documentation concerning the medical history of the Insured, Travelling companion or their immediate family for a maximum period of 5 years preceding the date on which the insurance contract was concluded),
 - h) other documents required to determine the justness and value of the claim (the list of the necessary documents can be found on SIGNAL IDUNA's website and on the claim report form),
 - i) bills and evidence of costs incurred may be provided to SIGNAL IDUNA in original or as copies – in case of doubt, SIGNAL IDUNA has the right to require original documents.

3. The complaint shall contain the contact details of the Client making both identification and contact possible in order to answer the complaint (name and surname, Tax Identification Number, business name of the company, address, number of insurance contract/ policy the complaint relates to or the reference number of the claim given earlier by SIGNAL IDUNA).
4. SIGNAL IDUNA shall consider the complaint and respond without delay, not later than within 30 days after its receipt, subject to significantly complicated circumstances making impossible both the consideration and provision of answer within that deadline. SIGNAL IDUNA shall then inform the Client about the reasons for the delay and about the facts to be established for the complaint to be considered as well as the estimated deadline for the consideration of the complaint and provision of an answer, which may not exceed 60 days from the date of the receipt of the complaint. If the said deadlines are not kept, the consumer complaint is deemed closed with the Client's request accepted.
5. The complaint shall be answered in paper form and, upon request of the Client, also by electronic mail.
6. The Client may also file appeals and complaints against SIGNAL IDUNA with the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, the Financial Ombudsman, or regional/municipal Consumer Ombudsman as well as other authorities responsible for protection of the clients of financial market entities.
7. The party authorized to conduct alternative consumer dispute resolution proceedings is the Financial Ombudsman (<https://rf.gov.pl/>).
8. Action for claims arising from the insurance contract may be brought either based on general regulations or before the court of justice with jurisdiction over the residence or the registered office of the client.
9. SIGNAL IDUNA is subject to the supervision of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority.

II.

- 1) Other provisions of the GT&C do not change.
- 2) This Annex No. 1 has been approved by Resolution No. 19/Z/2020 of the Management Board of SIGNAL IDUNA Polska Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń S.A. of 16 April 2020 shall enter into force on the date of approval of the Resolution
